

Death of Donald McIvor East Kildonan

By the death of Donald McIvor, in his 88th year, at his late residence in East Kildonan, on Saturday, ~~the ranks of the pioneers in~~ the North-West were reduced, as the deceased came to Canada in 1844. Mr. McIvor died rather suddenly following an operation on the ear.

He was born in Stornoway, Scotland, in 1826, and at the age of 18 left his home for Canada.
