

East Kildonan Celebrations At Fraser's Grove July 3

(Continued from page 1)

by the Elmwood-Kildonan "Y", and it is expected that most of the afternoon's visitors will picnic in the park.

At 7.00 p.m. a stage review will be presented under the direction of Len Andree. This Centennial Review will highlight five leading local acts.

At 9.30 p.m. a gigantic fireworks display will end the day. This half-hour show will be under the direction of the East Kildonan Fire Department.

At the A & P parking lot on Henderson Highway, a teen dance will be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of East Kildonan as its contribution to the program. The club has engaged the "Cellar Dwellers", a fine local band to play from 9.00 p.m. to midnight.

During the day it is expected that the probable winners of the July 1st baby will be announced. This project is being sponsored by the East Kildonan Chamber of Commerce. The proud parents of the East Kildonan child born on July 1st will be the recipients of gifts from leading merchants of the city.