

East Kildonan Board of Trade Elects Officers

For the third successive year, Arthur J. Taylor was elected president of the East Kildonan Board of Trade at the annual meeting in the Prince Edward school Monday night. Other officers elected were: First vice-president, T. J. Francis; second vice-president, J. A. Pearn; treasurer, H. R. McBain. The following were elected to the board of directors for the two-year term: J. A. Treger, J. C. M. Carson, R. J. Anderson and A. H. Allardyce, and for the one-year term, J. L. McWee and John Macdonald.

In a resolution that was passed, the reeve and municipal council of East Kildonan were urged to establish definitely as parks and playgrounds certain areas tentatively set aside for such purposes. The resolution will be presented by a delegation at the next meeting of the municipal council.
