

Daring Hold-Up Saturday Night

East Kildonan Grocer Robbed of $325.00—Burglary of Company
Premises at Chalmers and Watt

In a daring hold-up at midnight Saturday, Mr. P. Y. Anderson, proprietor of Anderson's Groceteria, 683 Henderson Highway, was stunned by a blow on the head and robbed of $325 by three young men who leaped on him in the lane at the rear of his home, 83 Helmsdale ave.

After closing his store for the night, Mr. Anderson was walking down the darkened lane, and when near his home he was overpowered by the trio, one of whom struck him on the head with the butt of a revolver.

Stunned by the blow, Mr. Anderson nevertheless put up a stubborn battle, but, unable to overcome the odds, he was hurled to the ground. Two of the bandits held him, while the third man went through his pockets, taking the money. The trio made their escape in a small car which was parked nearby.

Owing to the darkness and the fact he was momentarily stunned, the victim was unable to get a description of his assailants.

East Kildonan police were informed by neighbors that they had seen the bandit car standing in the lane for a considerable time prior to the hold-up.

Burglars early Sunday morning forced entrance to the premises of the Henderson Oil company, Watt st. and Chalmers ave., cracked open the safe and escaped with $25 in cash and a quantity of stamps.

Girls, melody and laughs play an equal part in Paramount's campus comedy, "College Rhythm," coming tonight (Thursday) to the Roxy theatre with Joe Penner heading the featured part. Directed by Norman Taurog, "College Rhythm" presents Penner, Lanny Ross, Jack Oakie, Helen Mack, Lyda Roberti and Mary Brian in a story about the campus cut-ups who turned the department store business into a college football campaign. The story has its beginning at State College where Jack Oakie, as "Love and Kisses" Finnegan, a football hero, becomes Lanny Ross' deadly rival for the love of Mary Brian. Their rivalry is carried over into the business world, but temporarily submerged when Oakie gets a job in the store owned by Lanny Ross' father. Here he gets the bright idea of introducing collegiate atmosphere — beautiful girls, cheering sections and football teams—into department store business as a means of whooping up sales. Everything goes beautifully until their competitors start stealing their thunder. The climax of the film comes after the big football game when Lanny Ross realizes that he does not love Mary Brian after

PROFESSIONAL