

The red lines on this map show the proposed subway system which has been recommended in a report to the Greater Winnipeg Transit Commission. The construction would be undertaken in about nine stages, stretching over a period of 23 years, with the first leg of the subway running under Portage Avenue and Main Street: a distance of 4½ miles.