

on out-of-the-country travel in 1960, $207 million more than foreign travellers spent in Canada in the year.

lowing Thursdays will be of 15 minutes duration.

The producer of the series is A. P. H. Scott.

labour force for the economy will have to provide an estimated 1,000,000 new jobs over the next five years.

E.K. Junior Chamber Receives Charter

The recently formed East Kildonan Junior Chamber of Commerce received its charter Friday night at the Rossmere Golf and Country Club.

W. Allan Bailey, vice-president of the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, presented President Ed. Dulko with the charter. Robert Chapman, president of the Winnipeg Junior Chamber, presented the gavel and pins.

Receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dulko; First vice-president Edward Wachal and Mrs. Wachal; Edward Pielech, William Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Busch.

Head table guests were: District No. 1 President Glynn Davies; Provincial President Peter Wilcock and Mrs. Wilcock; National Vice-President W. Allan Bailey and Mrs. Bailey; Winnipeg President Robert Chapman and Mrs. Chapman.

Special guests were: Mayor George Suttie and Mrs. Suttie; A. J. Reid, MLA for East Kildonan, and Mrs. Reid; Donald Townsend, president of the Senior Chamber of Commerce of East Kildonan, and Mrs. Townsend; and Abe Schellenberg, past president of the Provincial Unit, and Mrs. Schellenberg.

Also in attendance were: Robert Shannon, president of the Transcona Unit, and Mrs. Shannon; Robert Bayer, president of the St. Boniface Unit, and Mrs. Bayer; and Edward Norris, president of the Brandon Unit.

Steve Mihill introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Schellenberg, who spoke on the advantages available to all young men and the benefit of having a unit in the community.

Rudy Weidenbacher thanked the guest speaker.

The swearing in of the executive and the induction of the charter members was conducted by Mr. Wilcock.

The new organization has 20 charter members.

The dinner was followed by a dance.

RECEIVES CHARTER: W. A. Bailey (left), national vice-president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, presents Ed. Dulko, president of the East Kildonan Junior Chamber of Commerce, with the club's charter.—Photo by Ralf Lilje-Gren.