

Plans Complete For Opening Three More Nutrition Centres

The Health for Victory committee announces the opening of nutrition centres in Elmwood, North Kildonan and East Kildonan.

Next Monday, at 8 p.m. the Elmwood centre will open in the Lord Selkirk school, with Miss Helen Janzen as the teacher. Mrs. Arnold Campbell, 6 Neil Place, is the group leader.

North Kildonan housewives will begin their advanced course on canning for conservation, with Mrs. F. B. Kirkwood as the teacher, next Tuesday, at 8 p.m. in the Lord Kitchener school. Mrs. P. C. Clark, Irving Place, is the group leader for this centre.

On April 20, at 2.30 p.m., the centre in East Kildonan will open at the Washington Mission, Roach and Watt st. The teacher for this group will be Miss Norah Cherry, and the group leader, Mrs. Sydney Smith, 437 Sydney ave.

Housewives in these areas are asked to register with the group leaders, the registration fee for the course being 10 cents. Any groups wishing the nutrition or canning course are asked to get in touch with Mrs. A. W. Robinson, Camden Place, or Mrs. P. C. Clark, Irving Place, who are in charge of the centres.
