

East Kildonan Improvement Club

On Saturday evening last a meeting of the citizens of East Kildonan was called to form an Improvement Club. The chair was occupied by Reeve Bredin.

The meeting was addressed by A. Brazier, Daniel Thoma, Dr. Raleigh, O. H. Brown and J. K. McDougall. After a free discussion of the purposes and value of such an organization and the marked successes of similar organization the following resolution was unanimously carried: That we, resident representatives of East Kildonan, assembled at this meeting, proceed at once to organize a club with a view to discuss questions that may from time to time arise, or any scheme that has for its object the progress and development of the district either from a business or social standpoint, and that the organization be known as 'East Kildonan Improvement Club,' and that there be a membership fee of fifty cents."

The following officers were elected: Honorary president, Reeve A. R. Bredin; president, J. K. McDougall; vice president, S. R. Henderson; secretary-treasurer, D. W. McIvor

Executive—Ward 1: Dr. J. A. Raleigh, Mr. Williams, W. R. Hamilton, W. J. Major, A. Brazier, Jack Blanchard.

Ward 2: H. C. Wellams, Ed. Spice, Alfred Jackson, D. Y. Matheson, Ernie G. McBain, Sam Henderson, jr.

Ward 3: W. H. Coulter, Mr. Brooks, jr., Mr. De Graffe, Mr. Scott, Daniel Thoma.

Misses Finch of Carman, and Miss