HIGHWAY SAFETY

If you plan a motor trip, become familiar with Manitoba's Safety Responsibility Law. You may obtain full details of this law from your insurance agent. At the same time he can supply you with a pink Motor Vehicle Liability Insurance card for Manitoba. It's not essential that you have this card, but it can save you from the embarrassment of having your car even temporarily impounded if you are involved in an accident.

SOME HISTORIC SITES OF MANITOBA

1691—On P.T.H. No. 10, at The Pas, in Devon Park, a cairn in honor of HENRY KELSEY, Hudson's Bay Co. fur trader and explorer, who travelled from Hudson Bay to the Saskatchewan River via The Pas, first known white man to see the prairies.

1738—In St. Boniface, in park on Tache Ave., a heroic group in bronze in honor of Pierre Gaultier de LA VERENDRYE, whose tireless search through 13 years for a route overland to the Western Sea made him leader of the first known group of white men to reach the prairies from the St. Lawrence. The statue faces THE FORKS of the Red and Assiniboine rivers, where white civilization began in the Canadian West. (See also 1818 and 1885 below.)

1738—In Winnipeg, in park on Main St. opposite the Union Depot, a tablet commemorating four fur-trade forts once built near the Forks—La Verendrye's FORT ROUGE (1738), the North-West Co.'s FORT GIBRALTAR (1804), and the Hudson's Bay Co.'s first and second FORT GARRY (1821 and 1839). (See also 1839 below.)

1738—On P.T.H. No. 1 West, in park at Portage la Prairie, a cairn to mark the site of FT. LA REINE, built by La Verendrye in October, 1739, as the base from which he left the rivers and ventured out on the plains, to seek the "white" Indians near what are now Bismarck and Mandan, N.D.

1738—On P.T.H. No. 3 at Windygates Road, a cairn in honor of LA VERENDRYE as the first white man to reach what are now southern Manitoba and North Dakota.

1785—On P.T.H. No. 2 at Wawanesa, a cairn commemorating the SOURIS RIVER FUR TRADE POSTS built in 1785-1832. From these posts ran the fur trade routes to the Mandan country. There DAVID THOMPSON, great explorer, surveyor and geographer, had his base in 1797-98.

1816—On P.T.H. No. 4 East, on Main St., in West Kildonan, a monument marking the site of the SEVEN OAKS massacre, where Governor Semple and 21 Hudson's Bay Co. men were killed, when they went out from Ft. Douglas against two-to-one odds to meet a party of North-West Co. men hostile to the SELKIRK SETTLEMENT.

1818—In St. Boniface, THE BASILICA, fourth church building on the same site since the first Christian church in the Canadian West was built here in 1818. Here 100 years ago stood "the Roman mission with its TURRETS TWAIN" made famous by John Greenleaf Whittier in his poem, "The Red River Voyageur." (See also 1738 and 1885).

1831—On P.T.H. No. 9, 19 miles north of Winnipeg, LOWER FORT GARRY, the "Stone Fort". Built to replace Upper Fort Garry as the capital of the Canadian West, but only briefly so used, this fort is now the only original post of the fur-trade period still intact in Canada. Given in 1951 by the Hudson's Bay Co. to the Canadian people as a National Historic Site. (See also 1871 below).

1839—In Winnipeg, in park on Main St. (see 1738 above), the gate of UPPER FORT GARRY, all that remains of the famous fort from which the Canadian West was ruled during the 50 years, 1821-71, when the West was kept for Canada. The rest of the fort was torn down in 1882.

1849—Off P.T.H. No. 4 East, on the river road 12 miles north of Winnipeg, ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, the oldest stone church continuously used in Western Canada. The interior has the original fixtures. The church replaced a log structure built in 1831.

1855—In Winnipeg, across from the C.P.R. station, THE ROSS HOUSE, first Post Office in Western Canada.

1869—On P.T.H. No. 75, half-mile south of St. Norbert, a monument marking the site of THE BARRIER, where the Metis of Louis Riel turned back emissaries of Wm. McDougall, first lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, when he sought to enter the Red River Settlement before his powers were made legal by the transfer of Rupert's Land from the Hudson's Bay Co. to the Crown, in right of the then three-year old Dominion of Canada.

1871—On P.T.H. No. 1 West, 13 miles west of Winnipeg near Headingley, a cairn to mark the PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN and the site where the first monument was placed July 10, 1871, for the DOMINION LANDS SURVEY, basis of the Torrens title system of land tenure throughout Western Canada.

1871—At Lower Fort Garry (see 1831 above) on August 3, 1871, was signed TREATY No. 1 between the Crown and the Chippewa and Swampy Cree Indians, first of a series of treaties, loyally kept by both sides, by which the Indian tribes peacefully transferred the whole of Western Canada to "The Great White Mother," Queen Victoria, and her heirs.

1872-74—On P.T.H. No. 75, two miles north of Emerson, a cairn to mark the site of FT. DUFFERIN, built by the International Boundary Commission in 1872-73. From here, in 1874, the newly-organized North-West Mounted Police began their westward march to police the plains, beginning a record of discipline, calm courage and selfless devotion to duty that through nearly 80 years has brought public trust and world fame the "THE MOUNTIES", the Royal Canadian Mounted Police of to-day.

1885—In St. Boniface churchyard (see 1818 above), is a monument on the grave of Louis Riel, spokesman for the rights of the early settlers in the Red River Rising of 1870-71 and leader of the North-West Rebellion of 1885, for which last he was executed at Regina.

1932—On P.T.H. No. 10 at the international boundary, a cairn with inscription dedicating the International Peace Gardens, to commemorate 100 years of peace between Canada and the United States.
