

OPENING CONCERT BY PHONE SYSTEM STAFF

First Broadcasting Since Change in Arrangements

Tonight, at 8.30, the Manitoba Telephone system will put on its first programme since the taking over of broadcasting for the province. It is expected that official opening speeches will be broadcast by the Hon. F. M. Black and Commissioner Lowry, who will speak from their homes.

This evening's concert will be provided by employees of the telephone system and will include the following artists: Miss S. Johnson, soprano; Miss L. Wilson, soprano; Miss M. Meisner, contralto; Miss B. Sutherland, reader; and Messrs. H. Fowler, tenor; F. H. Hughes, baritone; A. Meggett, violinist, and I. W. Duff, whistler. The accompanying artists will be Miss C. Nairne, Miss B. McKnight, and Miss A. Hurt.

Numbers will be contributed by Mr. Art McFadyen and by the telephone Male Voice Choir.

lace, former commissioner of Northern Manitoba, who will speak on the natural resources of Manitoba.
